HIS EXCRLLENCY CHUNG How arrived this morning by the Messagories Maritimes steamer Godavery, on his way to Europe. There can now be very little doubt of the programme which he is commissioned to carry out. As we surmised some time ago, the point upon which he will have to lay stress is the difficult position in which the Imperial Government will be placed, if they are compelled to accede to the demands made upon them to execute the Mandarins concerned in the Tientsin Massacre 'A consideration of the dircumstances must show that this is the only point on which he could make any explanation; and, in addition to the general considerations leading to this conclusion, we have now the declaration in Prince Kung's despatch, that Chung How will explain to the French Government why it is inconvenient to execute CHEN Kwo SHWAI; -and perhaps, if he is in a communicative humour, he may also explain to them why it would be inconvenient if the Pekin Government should decide to execute the Special Ambassador himself.

Of course, it will be represented that China is at the present time in a disturbed state, and that executing CHEN Kwo SHWAI will lead to a general outbreak. It will also be pointed out that the like result would be certain to follow any war with Europeans; and the injury to trade from a general rebellion will be urged as reason for abstaining from any action likely to lead to this result.

That China is in a very disorganised state, there is unfortunately no doubt. It has been so for centuries, and under its present regime is likely to continue so for ages to The plea urged now, will be as good for the next outrage upon foreigners as it is for the present one; and if it be admitted, we shall simply be ourselves following the line of action, the adoption of which by the Chinese, has lead to the recent deplorable event. We shall let it be known that, if a man who commits outrages against us is sufficiently strong to be feared by the Chinese Government, he will be almost certain to escape with impunity. The result of this is clear. greatest encouragement will be given to men like CHEN Kwo SHWAT to get up disturbances, and to induce the ignorant and desperate to commit outrages upon foreigners. at the rate of $152,293 for the whole year-a As already shown, there can be no doubt as to the light in which CHUN How's success without any practical good being obtained in inducing the French and other foreign nations to depart from the demands which have been made will be regarded in China be concluded by the Chinese that Curro the How has threatened war, and foreign nations have been intimidated by his threat. However lamentable, therefore, it must appear to foreigners, that there should be a prospect of another rebellion in China, they cannot be asked to take upon themselves the effects of the very maladministration on the part of the Chinese Government, which is the realize the odd $3,775.24, so as to leave the chief cause of the outrage for which redress is now sought, Whatever else may be passed over, it is impossible to admit the principle that difficulties of any kind will excuse the the Special Fund towards the Police Force? Chinese Government from responsibility, when their own officials are mixed up in such diabolical desds. If CHEN KWO SHWAL WATE a declared Bandit, there need have been no hesitation in hunting him and his followers. out, and inflicting summary and conding punishment upon them. We cannot recognise that dangerous opposition to the Authorities is a reason for their not punishing him, and at the same time hold that his being in their service is a reason for our not inflicting punishment ourselves. If this principle be admitted, the Peking Authorities will be always able to clear themselves of responsibility for the acts of their servants, by simply declaring, when they have gone counter to foreigners, that they are secretly opposed to the Chinese Government itself, and we shall thus have no security that we may not at any time have to rely for protection upon mes who are at once the enemies of Europeans and of their own Government.

THERE is no question that, in a strictly logical point of view, a great deal may be urged against the proposed vote of $3,500 in aid of the fund for building a chancel to the Cathedral. Indeed, as a matter of abstract argument, it is difficult to see any limit to such a discussion. The whole question of Church rates, endowments, and of Church and State distance west of the Canton Wharf, when a with a guilty knowledge. NOW BEADY. IMPERIAL QUARTO. english and chinese dictionary PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Angle-Chinese Dictionart, by the Rev. W. LOBSCHEID, published at the Daily

Press Office, Hongkong.

FOR scope and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been comelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in acience generally, which the rapid advades of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Hach and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exer-oises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given, the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typo-graphy displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast concern of space, uchleving a clearness not BRASSFOUNDER, COPPERSMITH, previously attained, and dispensing with those IRON PLATE WORKER, vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications.

The scope of the work is so great, and its utilitarian purposes, so complete, that a reforence; to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found and of the best English Manufacture. Also a indispensable to all Europeans residing in complete assortment of Cup leathers for Ships OAKEY'S GOODS SOLD EVERY. THE LANGUAGE OF FLOWERS

DOETS of all ages have celebrated in song

the beauty of flowers. Their fancies have ever delighted in likeping the purest and holiest sentiments and feelings of the human boart to the floral beauties they so much adodred. Every flower, from the tiny but fragment Lily of the Valley to the gandy Sunflower, has been seized. upon and made to do duty as the representative of some condition, attribute, or action in life. The sweet Verbona is the mute representative of "Sensibility." While the fragrant Tuberose Rose in the sign of "Youthful Freshness," while the glaring Peopy is,"Anger." But there is another property possessed by the flowers equally f not more important then their beauty of form and color ;-we refer to the fragrance they exhale, What can compare with the breath of the blooming rose or the tender fragrance of the virgin lily ? Art tries and trics in vain to equal them. Cliemistry, which seems to know no limit to its powers of simulation, fails com pletely in its efforts at producing the delicacy, combined with the richness of Nature's perfunces; and, with the single exception of
